

Energy Efficiency in Colombia

Last Updated: March 27, 2017

Report Contents

- Full Report
- Key Documents
- Links
- Contacts
- Revision History

Introduction

Colombia has been a regional leader in the development of energy efficiency standards for a variety of products, although it has not yet regulated computer and other electronic products. Colombia's existing energy efficiency standards provide country-specific testing and labeling obligations and incorporate international standards by reference.

Please login to read more...

This section of IHS EIATRACK is only fully available to IHS EIATRACK members. Login here to view the entire report:

Username:

Password: Remember Me Forgotten password?

Not yet a member? See why subscribe. For sales please contact us. _____